

Little Locals.

Linus Davis of St. Louis is visiting homefolks.

Bob Shultz of Holladay was in Camden Saturday.

T. N. McDaniel of St. Louis returned home Sunday.

Miss Thelma Woody is visiting relatives in Nashville.

Born, in Camden, to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Cole, a son.

Mrs. Joe F. Odle and children have returned from Puryear.

R. L. Farmer and family visited at Faxon the first of the week.

Mrs. Annie Lewis is visiting her son, Irving Lewis, of Cairo, Ill.

J. M. Briggance of Hadley's Bend is at home for a few days.

Mrs. J. C. Bomar and Miss Grace Harper were in Waverly Monday.

Justice C. Clement of the ninth district was in Camden Tuesday.

J. P. Woody will return from Red Boiling Springs this morning.

Herbert Redick went to Nashville this week to accept a position.

C. P. Allen and Dewey Bivens of Sheffield, Ala., are at home on a visit.

Mrs. Will S. Corbitt has returned from an extended visit to Nashville.

Tom Wiseman of Hadley's Bend is spending a few days with homefolks.

Mrs. Fannie Rushing has returned from a visit on Rushing's Creek.

Mrs. Joe F. Odle and children have returned from a visit at Hazel, Ky.

Mrs. Mary Wygul and daughter of Baker's Chapel were in Camden Monday.

Tilford Justice and Corine Sutton have returned from a visit at Wartrace.

Joseph Lankford and family of Sykeston, Mo., returned home last Wednesday.

H. T. Holland of Eva was a pleasant caller at The Chronicle office Monday.

Mrs. Van A. Wyly and children have returned from a visit Humphreys County.

Milton Rice, who joined the colors a few months ago, is at home on a furlough.

Alvin Lashlee of Nashville joined his family here over Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mrs. W. D. Cooper and children of Paris are guests of the family of W. E. McCulough.

Mrs. James White and children of Memphis are guests of the family of G. W. E. Herrin.

W. S. Odle and son of Lexington visited the former's mother, Mrs. Odle, the first of the week.

Camden Chapter Order of the Eastern Star will meet at Masonic Hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. W. G. Robinson and son of Holladay have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. E. J. Hartley.

Miss Bess Durdin left Tuesday for the Nashville market to study the fall and winter styles of millinery.

Dr. A. B. Jones, pastor of the Methodist Church, attended the missionary conference at Union City Tuesday.

Albert Dye of McKenzie and Herman Dye of Milan were called here Saturday by the sudden death of their father, E. Dye.

The local union W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting at the C. P. Church Tuesday August 20. Annual dues will be collected at this meeting.

Officers will be elected and other important business transacted.

Mrs. T. J. Dillard of Arkansas returned home this week.

William Presson of East Prairie, Mo., has been visiting in Camden.

Miss Annie Hunt of Paris is visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. P. Hicks.

Mayor A. V. Bowles returned from Red Boiling Springs yesterday.

Kirby Lowry and family of St. Louis are visiting at Dickson before returning home.

County Clerk A. L. Hassell has issued a marriage license to Wyly Parker and Annie Yates.

Mrs. Willie Olliver of Alabama has been visiting Mrs. J. H. Jordan, returning home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Fry and Miss Maude Fry met their sons and brothers, Hal and Ernest, at Chattanooga for a few days this week.

Mrs. J. M. Lashlee and children have returned from a visit at Waynesboro, accompanied by Miss Annie Frank Norman and brother, William.

Dr. A. B. Jones announced from the pulpit Sunday that the Methodist and Presbyterians of Camden will hold a union meeting sometime in September.

We have a card from Trustee Bob Smith at Hot Springs, Ark., in which he says he is improving right along and will be home by the first of September.

On account of the meeting at Cowell Chapel the ice cream supper has been postponed until Friday night, August 30, when there will be a balloon ascension.

There was a well attended meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society with Mrs. J. H. Jordan Tuesday afternoon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Zana Bradley.

Misses Lorine and Kathleen Morris entertained with a lawn party Friday evening. There was a large attendance of youngsters and fun and frolic lasted until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Presson of Bertrand, Mo., are spending a few days here among old acquaintances.

Mrs. Presson was Lucy Finley, and will be remembered by many of our older citizens.

Vilas Parker is visiting his father, Sheriff J. C. Parker, here and Mrs. Parker at Faxon. The young man is serving on the Battleship Utah, which will more than likely soon see service in European waters.

Rev. J. L. Hudgins of Nashville has tendered his resignation as pastor of the C. P. Church and called in his appointments at Camden on the third Sunday in August and September. Brother Hudgins has been pastor of the Camden Church for about five years, and has many friends here who will regret to hear of this decision, which was influenced by his acceptance of the pastorate of a Nashville Church.

BIG SANDY.

The public school will open here Monday.

County Agent W. G. Wilson was here last Friday.

Ernest Baker and wife were in Camden Sunday.

Robert Boone of Erin is visiting Hillman Lindsey.

Dr. J. L. Freeman was in Nashville last Saturday.

Frank Watson has returned to Memphis to attend school.

Miss Thelma Herrin has returned from a visit at Baker's Chapel.

J. M. Marshall and wife visited the family of W. H. Akers Sunday.

James Burns and R. G. Bennett of Paris visited friends here Sunday.

Mrs. O. W. Fleming spent the week-end with Mrs. Hester Moody at Waverly.

William McKenzie and wife of Bemis spent last week with friends and relatives here.

Benton Craney and family visited his sister, Mrs. J. R. Redmon, at Henry last week.

Misses Bonnie Mai and Willie Fay Cooper of Paris visited Miss Morie Cooper last week.

Miss Leo Lindsey will leave Wednesday for Nashville to enter Hume-Fogg High School.

Benton Craney of South Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting his wife and children and other relatives here.

Leeper Herndon and family of near Union City are visiting the family of his father, Dave Herndon.

C. E. Hastings and wife and E. A. Trovillion and wife of Paris visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hastings Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Rogers of Waverly, who visited the family of her brother, T. C. Craney, last week returned home Sunday.

Ernest Baker has sold his interest in the grocery business here and gone to work for the Louisville and Nashville Railway at Paris.

W. Y. Hawks of Cottage Grove bought the home of J. B. Hastings last week, also the Ramble Creek farm of H. H. and Lon Warmack. Mr. Hastings will move to Hollow Rock this fall.

A. A. Lindsey of Willsboro, Tex., returned home Tuesday, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Lindsey, who will spend some time there, the guests of her sons, Albert, Herschell and Bedford.

Hildred Hicks and Miss Maud Redmon of Henry County were married last Sunday. They are popular young people and have many friends who wish them much happiness. They are at the home of the groom parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hicks.

The following ladies of Baker's Chapel, Mrs. J. W. Byrn, Mrs. Tom Rushing and Miss Grace Baker, served ice cream here Saturday for the Red Cross Branch, realizing $18 clear of expenses. The O. E. of S. will have charge of this feature next Saturday.

CARPENTER.

Mrs. Ada Brown returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Ella Cantrell is better at this writing.

Mrs. Jesse Pafford has been sick, but is some better.

Mrs. Kate Forrest has been visiting on Harmon Creek.

Mrs. A. J. Pafford visited her daughter-in-law last week.

Freeman Wright and family are attending the meeting at Flatwoods last week.

Jesse N. Pafford writes from France that he is in fine health and well located.

Mrs. Joe Frazier and sister, Miss Nelle Herrin, and Mrs. O. W. Flemings spent the week-end in Waverly.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cherry and R. H. Hollingsworth visited the family of B. D. Goodman Sunday afternoon.

The news that Andrew Hargis' boy was killed in France last week proved to be a mistake. The family and friends are relieved to know the report was unfounded.

Best wishes to The Chronicle and all the readers.

This is no time merely to theorize on useful works. It is a time to roll up sleeves and get busy at something worth while to win the war.

Congress is at work on a new revenue bill. Grit your teeth and resolve to pay your part.—Southern Agriculturist.

Mrs. E. D. Davidson is visiting her father, W. M. Cuff.

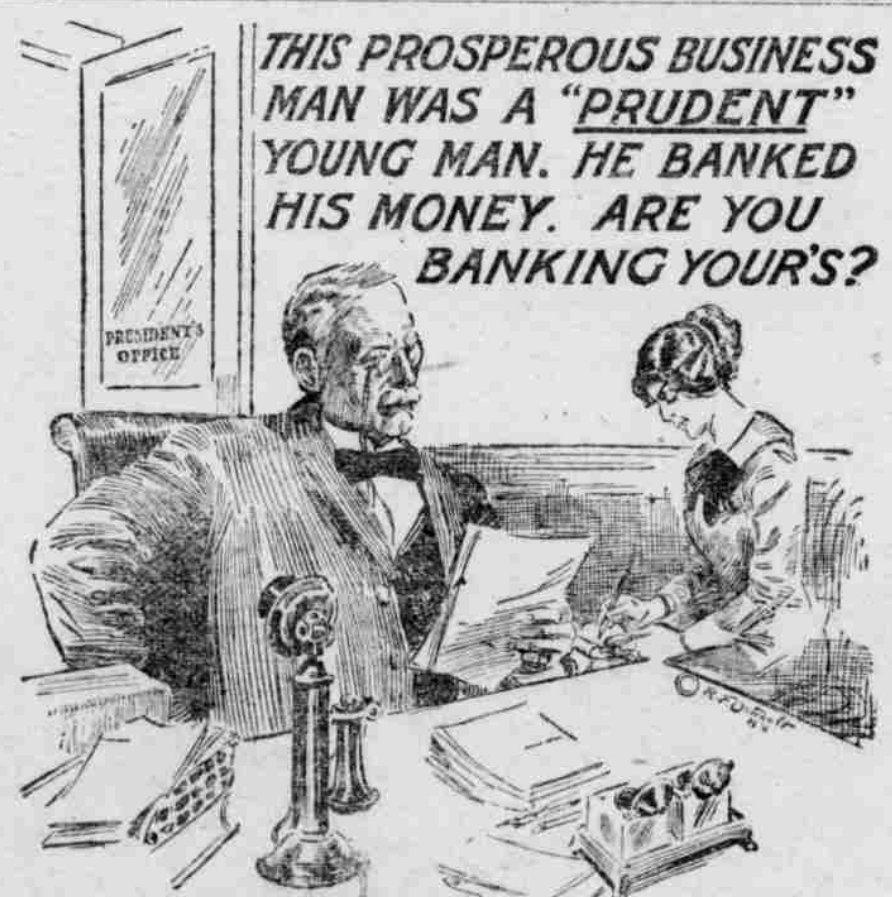

HAAG

MIGHTY SHOWS

WALLETT FAMILY
CELEBRATED ENGLISH RIDERS - DIRECT FROM THE HIPPODROME, LONDON, ENGLAND.

WILL EXHIBIT AT
Big Sandy Saturday August 17
AND AT
Camden Monday August 19
2 COMPLETE PERFORMANCES IN EACH PLACE AT 2
AND 8 P. M., RAIN OR SHINE.
BIG STREET PARADE AT NOON.

THIS PROSPEROUS BUSINESS MAN WAS A "PRUDENT"
YOUNG MAN. HE BANKED
HIS MONEY. ARE YOU
BANKING YOURS?

Prosperity comes only to him who MAKES it for himself. It is easy to gain if you will only do what your common sense tells you to do—work, save and DEPOSIT your money and let it stay in the bank.

Do not dabble in GET-RICK-QUICK speculation; this is the sure road to RUIN. Play SAFE; this is the sure road to success.

Make OUR bank YOUR BANK.

We pay 4 per cent interest on time deposits

First National Bank
CAMDEN, TENN.

Seventeen merchants of Crystal Springs, Miss., have signed an agreement not to make any more free delivery of goods sold at their store for the period of the war.

Grosvenor Gardens army "Y" Hut London, England, reports over 2,000,000 men including Americans have passed through its doors since it was opened in January 1916.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears
the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher